Part V, line 4:
Grants to Charitable Organizations

Part X, Line 2:
The Foundation's federal excise tax returns have not been examined by the tax authorities for the last three years, which are the remaining years possibly subject to examination. Management realizes that there may be differences of opinion relating to interpretations taken by taxing authorities and that certain tax jurisdictions may require filings which have not been made. However, there have not been any material claims made by any taxing authorities that have not been appropriately defended or provided for in the financial statements, nor is management aware of any specific uncertain tax positions that currently exist.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:
The organization has a comprehensive conflict of interest policy in place regarding monitoring, disclosure, conflicts, and enforcement. This policy pertains to any possible conflict of interest relating to the actions of any officer, director, or board member. This policy includes but is not limited to the following disclosure procedure requiring that annually, board members, committee members, liaisons, and staff members are required to fill out a Statement of Affirmation and the Conflict of Interest Disclosure Statement. The Executive Director shall then compile a list of possible conflicts for use, as needed during board, committee, and Grant Process cohort meetings. It is also the responsibility of each board member, committee member, liaison, and staff member to inform the Executive Director of any possible conflict of interest he or she may have, if such roles are not otherwise made known in the annual forms, and to complete a new disclosure statement if circumstances change during the year.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

The organization has a comprehensive conflict of interest policy in place regarding monitoring, disclosure, conflicts, and enforcement. This policy pertains to any possible conflict of interest relating to the actions of any officer, director, or board member. This policy includes but is not limited to the following disclosure procedure requiring that annually, board members, committee members, liaisons, and staff members are required to fill out a Statement of Affirmation and the Conflict of Interest Disclosure Statement. The Executive Director shall then compile a list of possible conflicts for use, as needed during board, committee, and Grant Process cohort meetings. It is also the responsibility of each board member, committee member, liaison, and staff member to inform the Executive Director of any possible conflict of interest he or she may have, if such roles are not otherwise made known in the annual forms, and to complete a new disclosure statement if circumstances change during the year.
